CWP No.24205 of 2013

Dharmander and others vs. State of Haryana and others

Present: Mr. R.K. Malik, Sr. Advocate, with Ms. Kiran Rathee, Advocate, for the petitioners.

Mr. Harish Rathee, Sr. DAG, Haryana, for respondent Nos.1 to 3.

Mr. Arvind Singh, Advocate, for respondent No.4.

By consent, this petition is treated as the main case.

The present and all connected writ petitions raise issues as to eligibility with respect to educational qualifications earned from different Universities and nursing institutions from States outside the State of Haryana. In some of the cases, service is not complete. In many of the cases, Mr. Rathee does not have copy of the writ petitions filed which has incapacitated him for considering filing replies. In at least one case, process fee was not filed to serve the respondents. This Court has passed interim orders in each of these cases permitting provisionally the respective petitioners to be interviewed by the Haryana Staff Selection Commission, Panchkula for the advertised posts of Multi Purpose Health Workers (Male).

Mr. Rathee submits that the petitioners would be interviewed provisionally in terms of the interim directions passed in each case within a time bound period and result of the interviews will be kept in sealed cover. He submits that but for intervention of this Court the last date of interviews was 14.11.2013 but the doors of the Commission would be opened to interview the petitioners on the same parameters and criteria which was applied to those who have already been interviewed and the final merit would be determined without any discrimination between those who have been interviewed without Court intervention and those who are going to be interviewed after Court intervention.

Since interviewing the petitioners is not a difficult task to the mind of this Court it would serve the ends of justice if a direction is issued to the Commission that it draws up a schedule of interviews with date and time in the Commission's office duly notified personally to each of the petitioners and on the website of the Commission. Let this exercise be completed within 10 days. Thereafter, let the entire exercise be completed within 30 days upon which the result of the interviews be kept in sealed covers to be produced in Court on the next date of hearing.

Mr. Rathee states at Bar that he has knowledge only of three writ petitions being CWP No.24205 of 2013, 24866 of 2013 and 22639 of 2013. Let each of the learned counsel for the petitioners supply three sets of the paper book to Mr. Rathee by 06.12.2013. In case, there is failure to supply copies of the paper books to Mr. Rathee, the interim order including this order shall stand automatically vacated without reference to this Court. Each of the learned counsel for the petitioners in each of the writ petitions would while supplying copies in the office of the Advocate General, Haryana obtain a receipt and keep it as a proof of service. It is made clear that no further writ petition would be entertained claiming provisional interview henceforth.

List on 04.02.2014.
